

Toast to Victory Script

Toast Master: Good evening, ladies and gentlemen, and welcome to this “Toast to Victory” in remembrance of the 75th anniversary of V-E Day. Tonight, I will be your Toast Master. In preparation for our toasts, the proper response to each toast can be found in the toast script you were sent before this gathering.

Let the toast begin!

Toast Master: Ladies and gentlemen, I propose a toast to the United States of America.
RESPONSE: To the United States!

Toast Maker 1: Ladies and gentlemen, I propose a toast to President Franklin D. Roosevelt and President Harry S. Truman.
RESPONSE: To the President!

Toast Maker 2: Ladies and gentlemen, I propose a toast to the United States Army.
RESPONSE: To the Army!
*Feel free to toast to all the service branches of your choosing in the same manner.

Toast Maker 3: Ladies and gentlemen, I propose a toast to our Allies who we fought alongside to secure victory.
RESPONSE: To our Allies!

Toast Maker 4: Ladies and Gentlemen, I propose a toast to all the home front workers who stepped up during World War II.
RESPONSE: To the Rosie’s and the home front!

Toast Maker 5: Ladies and gentlemen, I propose a toast to the soldiers lost in the line of duty during World War II. May we never forget their service.
RESPONSE: Never forget!

Toast Maker 6: Ladies and Gentlemen, I propose a toast to all the veterans of World War II. To those still with us and those no longer able to join us in this toast we raise a glass to you on this 75th anniversary of V-E Day.
RESPONSE: To Victory!

Toast Master: Thank you for gathering for this special toast.
